

5. 164-9. William Mompesson, Rector of Eyam during the Plague

Mompesson's Well

L.S. & Plague Anniversary, Eyam, Aug 31 1913 On The Way To The Cucklett Dell.

Plague Anniversary procession in 1913

The graves of George and Mary Darby in The Lydgate

The Riley Graves (the Hancock family)

Plague Cottages in 1998

The Boundary Stone on the Cliff

Eyam Square facing west in the early 1900s

Eyam Square in 1998

Church Street, facing west, in 1896

Church Street in 1998

Eyam Square in about 1910

Eyam Square in 1998

Hawkhill Road in about 1910

Hawkhill Road in 1998

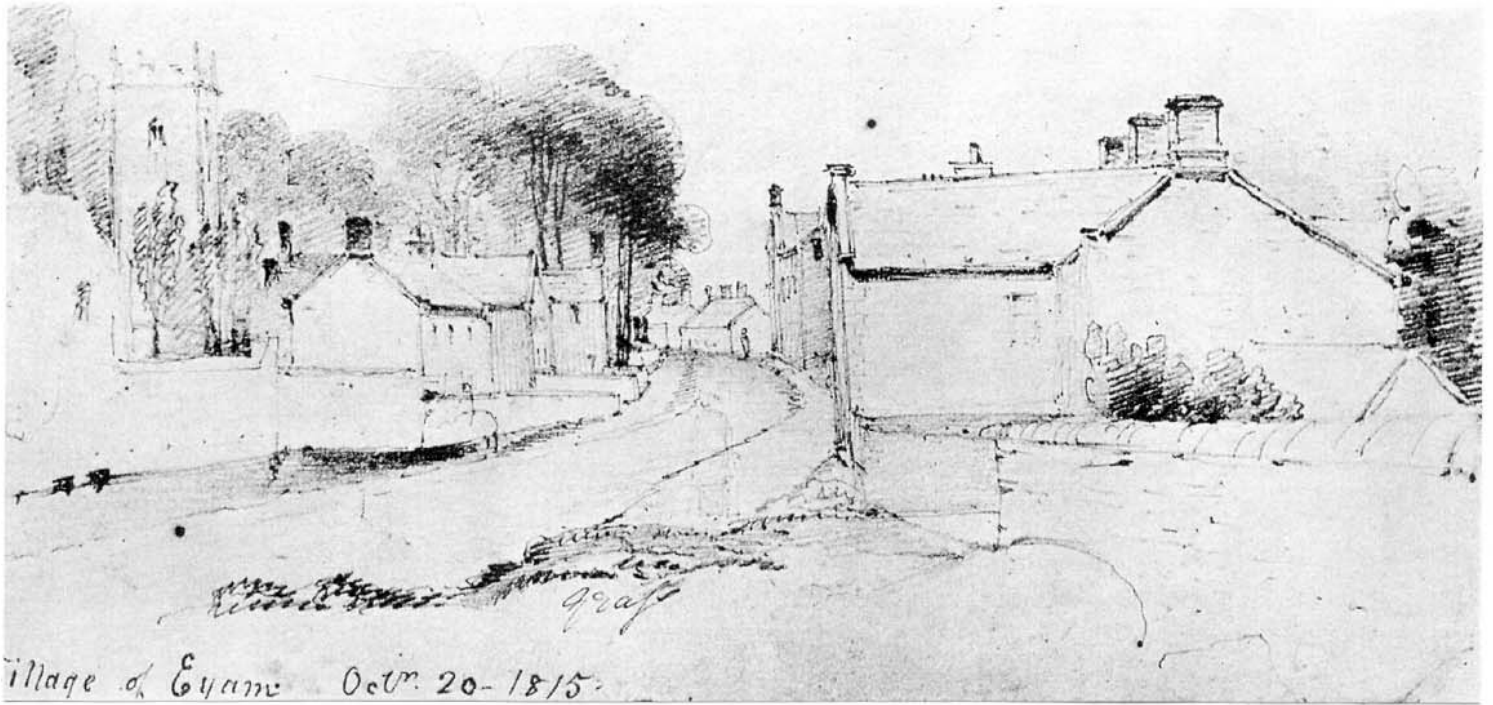

Church Street facing east in the 1930s

Church Street in 1998

The picture above shows SIR FRANCIS CHANTREY'S original 18th Century sketch of the Plague Cottages. The picture below is the more familiar finished engraving by W.B. and G. Cooke and illustrates how the original drawing has been elaborated.

