Note 6. Godfrey Ashe was the householder in 1654 but died before the plague. According to the will his son Thomas inherited. Though Thomas was not baptised until after the plague it is possible that he had been born slightly earlier and the ceremony had been delayed, but he is not counted.

30	Ashmore	William	c.1635	after 1666	a			18

32		Thomas	16.03.65	27.08.66		13	212

Note 7. William Ashmore was not listed in 1664, the year he married Joan Hadfield, an Eyam girl. He is reckoned as a survivor since the deaths of his wife and child are recorded but not his. A William Ashmore married in Hope in 1667. He may have returned to that parish after the plague.

Note 120. Elizabeth Sheldon had had two previous marriages (see notes 54 and 105). Elizabeth, Thomas and John Sheldon were the surviving children of Philip Sheldon's first marriage to Bridget. Elizabeth is discounted for lack of evidence. Philip and his second wife Elizabeth had five children. There are no baptism dates for Olive, Sarah and Anne, but they were all alive and aged under 21 when Philip died in 1677. A two year birth pattern is assumed which means that Anne would be born after the plague and so she is discounted. The family is said to have left Eyam during the plague.

Note 126. Elizabeth Syddall remarried John Daniel (146) on the 24th April 1666. She is entered in the register at her death as Elizabeth Daniel. She left a nuncupatius will in which she entrusted her surviving son to Robert Thorpe. The Letters of Administration and the Probate Certificate name Joseph Syddall, son of Elizabeth Daniel as being the child in question, thus confirming the marriage. See also note 44.

	Anne	26.10.56	after 1687	discounted
	Sarah	29.06.61	unknown	discounted

Note 127. Margaret Syddall was not listed in 1662 or 1664, though her husband provided for her in his will in 1661. She was his second wife. There were two surviving children from the first marriage, who were left in the care of a kinsman in Sheffield. There is a reference to the marriage of her daughter Anne in Eyam in 1680 but the whole family is discounted for lack of evidence of continuous residence in the village.

54	5 Talbot	Bridget. widow	c.1590	15.08.66	187	185	47
No	te 128. Bridge	t Talbot was the mother of	Richard (numb	er 546), but taxed as a separate househo	old. In 1662 s	he was liste	d in the Eyam Woodlands re	turns and in 160	64 in Evam.

546 Talbot	Richard	c.1610	25.07.66		188	121
547	Catharine. 2nd wife	c.1620	18.07.66		189	109

551	Mary	26.03.48	05.07.66		191	91
552	Jonathan	19.05.50	30.07.66		192	133
553	Joan	06.03.56	26.07.66		193	123
554	Jane	08.05.58	17.07.66		194	107
555	Anne	13.04.61	07 07 66		195	96

Note 129. Richard Talbot remarried in 1643. Joan his first wife died in 1639. Though resident on the Riley he was taxed in 1664 in the Eyam Woodlands returns. In 1662 he was taxed as being in Eyam.

556 Talbot	Robert	c.1644?	24.07.66	196	118
557	Ruth	c.1645	26.07.66	197	124
558	Catharine	15.04.66	30.08.66	198	216

Note 130. Robert Talbot was not a householder in 1664, and by reference to the plague deaths it is possible that he may have still been living in the family home in 1665/6, though married by that time. He is assumed to have been the son of Richard and Catharine and born in 1644, the year for which there is a gap in the register.

559 Taylor	Alice. widow	c.1610	09.01.79				354	81
560	Margaret	13.09.35	14.07.66		199	102
561	Alice	25.10.40	08.10.66		200	249
	Philip	27.11.42	unknown	discounted

Note 131. Alice Taylor may have been the widow of Lawrence. Though he had a large family his wife's name is never given in the entries. There is no mention of any other deceased Taylor of this generation whose widow she could have been. There is no other mention of Philip.

562 Taylor	Edward	c.1630	after 1670	h	355	48
563	Sarah	27.08.37	after 1666	a	356
564	Anne	pre 1660	08.06.92		357

Note 132. Edward Taylor and his wife Sarah are mentioned in the Visitation Book of 1665. Sarah was definitely alive in 1665 because she was excommunicated that year with Thomas and Mary Taylor for fornication. Although she is not listed in the plague deaths it seems safe to assume she was still alive (see note 135 below).

5	65	Taylor	James	unknown	11.05.66	13
Λ	Vote	133. James Tayl	or. Beyond the date of h	is death in the	plague nothing else	is known about him.
5	666	Taylor	John	27.03.38	after 1686	S	358
5	67		Anne	c.1640	16.01.86		359
5	68		Alice	03.09.65	03.11.65	14

Note 134. John Taylor was not listed as a householder in 1664. He did not marry until after the village had been assessed, so was probably living with his mother Alice (Number 559).

569 Taylor	Thomas	after 1670	h	360	82
570	Mary	not known		361

Note 135. Thomas Taylor was taxed in 1664 and 1670 which proves he was alive. His wife Mary is assumed to have survived the plague for the same reason as that given for Sarah (see note 132 above). There is no record of any family.
