

Eyam Museum
Vice Chair
(Trustee Role, Unpaid)

Are you an experienced leader looking for a meaningful challenge?

Eyam Museum, at the heart of the Peak District's historic "Plague Village," is embarking on an ambitious, multi-year development to grow and develop audiences, enhance our interpretation and facilities, and tell one of England's most powerful stories to new generations.

We are seeking a Vice Chair to help lead this next chapter.

This is a hands-on trustee role for someone who:

- Brings strong leadership and project management experience
- Can help guide a complex capital and audience development project
- Has an interest in heritage, history, and public engagement
- Ideally has experience in fundraising or major projects

You will:

- Work closely with the Chair to lead and steer the project
- Provide continuity and strategic oversight
- Be ready to step into the Chair role if needed

Following a National Lottery Heritage Fund-supported Options Analysis Project, we aim to begin delivery in 2027, shaping the Museum's future for years to come.

Location: Ideally you will be based within 2 hours of Eyam in the Derbyshire Dales

Time commitment: Flexible but active involvement expected

If you want to apply your skills to a project of real cultural significance, we would be delighted to hear from you.

To apply: Send your CV and a covering letter describing why this role is for you to Emma McBeath at manager@eyam-museum.org.uk

Closing Date: 15 June 2026

Website: www.eyam-museum.org.uk

Find us on Instagram: @eyammuseum & Facebook: @eyamvillagemuseum